

I am strongly opposed to RM-10808. The piecemeal testing it proposes would be an excessive burden on the Volunteer Examiner system.

Furthermore, it is my strong opinion that any access to the High Frequency (HF) allocations of the Amateur Radio Service must be contingent upon a demonstrated proficiency in the Morse Code.

Thank you and best regards;

John Kuklewicz, N7ZN